

ISSUE 5 June, 2021

EDITORIAL

We welcome you, our esteemed audience to the brand new month of July. In tandem with the vision and core mandates of the centre, (SEZBC), we are delighted to bring to fore the center's Newsletter for the month of June.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

In the usual fashion, the month of June witnessed a plethora of activities in the center, as we aim to achieve set goals in research and development.

EDIBLE FUNGI

The production of edible mushrooms has bounced in full swing, and arrangements are in top gears to commence training on mushroom cultivation/production.

The mushroom unit has also standardised domestication procedures for a wide variety of mushrooms. In addition, the center has mushroom spawns available for sale to the general public.

Interested persons should avail themselves the opportunity to learn the production/cultivation of mushrooms, from the comfort of their homes. Registration is on-going at the SEZBC. For more information, call- 08062259144

TRAINING AND SEMINAR

Training

The center's director organised an ICT hands-on training for the staff of the center. Staffers are encouraged to key into the laudable programme as it will help sharpen their expertise in area of ICT.

Research and ICT go hand in hand. It is therefore vital that staffers stand to gain greatly from this development.

ICT Training

Seminar

The weekly seminar of the center is still in place. For the month of June, presenters were Mrs. Okafor Ifeoma and Mrs. Anukwe Abigail.

While Mrs. Okafor discussed "Civil Service Ethics," Mrs. Anukwe dwelt on "Breast Cancer."

It was a robust exercise that saw discussants explain the topics, as well as react to questions from the audience.

IT Student Entrepreneurship on Cake Making

The Centre is also training some students who are currently doing their Industrial attachment. The students are trained in cake making to encourage entrepreneurial

Events

Birthdays

Mr Udentia S.O and Engr Anakebe E. U, celebrated their birthdays within the month of June. We wish them well.

Convocation

Dr.(Mrs) Eunice Anaele and Mrs. Obiakor marked their convocations respectively. Congratulations to all the celebrants!!!